The dancers will present “a Taste of Moulin Rouge”, a condensed performance of 8 minutes, paying homage to their world famous Féerie and Cancan. The French extravaganza will showcase iconic costumes that have played key roles in the Moulin Rouge's long history during their fashion show. Jane Avril, La Goulue, Mistinguett, and Robe En Strass are amongst the lucky stars that helped set the opulent costume standards. These one of a kind Swarovski crystal encrusted garments being showcased at “Best of France” are estimated to cost upwards of $350,000 total. All costumes are handcrafted by Moulin Rouge's in house ateliers, from design to production. Moulin Rouge's regalia boast intricate details, manufactured and sourced by their recently acquired specialty shoe and feather makers, Maison Clairvoy and Maison Février.

“We have many surprises in store for the US while we are here. We can't wait for event attendees to have the chance to marvel at everything the Moulin Rouge has to offer”, continues Clerico.
